VI. Finalize Final Report
The 2012 Program Review Report – A Dialog on Success was presented to the group for final editing before Stephanie Kashima presents the report on Friday, October 19 at the College Council Retreat. Since the report has been through several edits, very few changes were made and most were minor. Only three items sparked discussion. The term “oversized classes” was changed to “class size” as the definition of what constitutes “oversize” is very subjective and depends on the type of class. At present each program sets the capacity for each class and therefore, we can’t establish a general rule that would be applicable campus-wide. By using the term “class size” instead of “oversized classes,” the Program Review Committee can just report what each program states without inadvertently judging or defining the size of a class.

Concerns also arose regarding the answers to the SLO Question #21. One issue raised was whether or not to edit the responses in the interest of clarity and readability. In addition, some of the answers appear to be ambiguous. John will consult with Heidi Diamond, the SLO Committee Chair, for input and guidance.

The remaining time was spent discussing how to graphically portray the correlation between efficiency and success. Inge and Stephanie will work on designing a graph that will best show the two sets of data for all of the programs in an uncluttered format, with less confusing axes labels.

VII. Adjournment
The meeting was adjourned at 4:00.
